

tion put, "shall the bill pass." Determined in the affirmative, and the bill was returned to the House of Delegates.

The Clerk of the House of Delegates, delivered a bill, entitled, an act to revive and extend the charter of the Planters Bank of Prince Georges county, so as to enable the institution gradually to wind up its affairs, which was read the first time, and referred to Messrs. Herbert, Smith and Lloyd.

Also, a bill, entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act to regulate the fees of certain officers, which was read the first time, and referred to Messrs. Kennedy, Heath and Harrison.

Also, a bill, entitled, an act for the benefit of Tabitha Swearingen, of Frederick county, which was read the first time, and referred to the Committee on Invalid Deeds.

Also, a bill, entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act incorporating a Company for the improvement of the public road, from the city of Frederick to Harpers' Ferry, passed at December session 1828, chapter 142, which was read the first time, and referred to Messrs. Kennedy, Smith and Dennis.

And returned the bill entitled, a further supplement to the act, entitled, an act to incorporate the President and Directors of the Firemen's Insurance Company of Baltimore; endorsed, "will pass." Ordered, that the said bill be engrossed.

And also delivered the resolution in favor of Richard Coe, of Prince George's county, an old revolutionary soldier, heretofore rejected by the Senate, accompanied with the following message, which was read:

By the House of Delegates,
February 6th, 1830

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We return to your honorable body, the resolution in favor of Richard Coe, of Prince George's county, an old revolutionary soldier, and respectfully solicit your re-consideration of the resolution, and a re-examination of the evidence accompanying it; when we flatter ourselves that you will be convinced of the propriety of passing the same.

By order,

Gideon Pearce, Clerk.

On motion of Mr. Rees, the Senate reconsidered the resolution mentioned in said message, and the same was again referred to the Committee on Pensions and Revolutionary Claims.
